Dear Friends:

We were indeed saddened to learn of the passing of your dear father, Delbert V. Groberg. He lived a long and fruitful life and we rejoice with you in a life well lived and express to your family our heartfelt and sincere condolences.

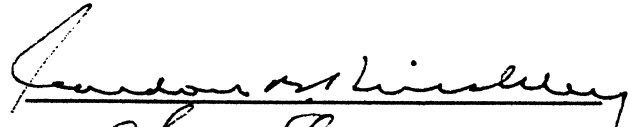

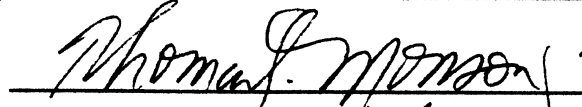

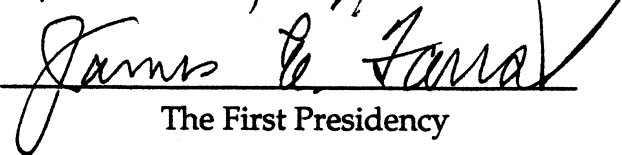

Brother Groberg set a high standard of service, faith and achievement for his family to emulate. We are confident that your family members will take comfort in the quality of his life. He lived in such a way that all those who knew him recognized his abiding love for our Savior, Jesus Christ, and we acknowledge with gratitude the example your father set for his posterity.

Brother Groberg was a great patriot who demonstrated love for his country and his fellowman through his community service in various capacities. As a businessman he made significant contributions and is remembered as a man of integrity and thoughtfulness. His Church service as bishop, patriarch and president of the Idaho Falls Idaho Temple reflects his love of the gospel and we appreciate his dedication and devotion to the building up of the Kingdom.

Your father has returned home to a loving Father in Heaven. There, he is happily reunited with your dear mother and with other loved ones who preceded them in death. Although there is no substitute for the love of dear parents, we pray you will be blessed with peace and the comforting influence of the Holy Spirit.

With love and kind regards.

Sincerely yours,

The First Presidency
